CLERGY CORNER

The following is from a treatise on John by Saint Augustine, bishop:

The Lord tells us: I am the light of the world... Those who have been freed and raised up follow the light... that light shines on us now, for we have had our eyes anointed with the eye-salve of faith. His saliva was mixed with earth to anoint the man born blind. We are of Adam's stock, blind from our birth; we need him to give us light.

We shall be in possession of the truth when we see face to face. This is his promise to us. Who would dare to hope for something that God in his goodness did not choose to promise or bestow? We shall see face to face. The Apostle says: Now I know in part, now obscurely through a mirror, but then face to face. John the apostle says in one of his letters: Dearly beloved, we are now children of God, and it has not yet been revealed what we shall be. We know that when he is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. This is a great promise. (Tract. 34, 8-9: CCL 36, 315-316)

In Christ's peace,

Father Robby
