CLERGY CORNER

The following is from a treatise on John by Saint Augustine, bishop:

A new commandment I give you, that you love one another... This is the kind of love that renews us. When we love as he loved us we become new... heirs of the new covenant and singers of the new song... From the entire human race throughout the world this love gathers together into one body a new people, to be the bride of God's only Son... And so all her members make each other's welfare their common care. When one member suffers, all the members suffer with him, and if one member is glorified all the rest rejoice. They hear and obey the Lord's words: A new commandment I give you, that you love one another... They love one another as God loves them so that they may be brothers of his only Son. He will lead them to the goal that alone will satisfy them, where all their desires will be fulfilled. For when God is all in all, there will be nothing left to desire. This love is the gift of the Lord who said: As I have loved you, you also must love one another. His object in loving us, then, was to enable us to love each other. By loving us himself, our mighty head has linked us all together as members of his own body, bound to one another by the tender bond of love. (Tract. 65, 1-3: CCL 36, 490-492)

In the joy of Christ,
Fr. Robby
