THE ASCENSION OF THE LORD

Jesus commissions his disciples to baptize in his name, reminding them that he is always present through his Spirit. Having ascended to his Father amid cries of gladness, we are to be his witness for we have been gifted with his Spirit of wisdom and revelation. Let us, therefore, live in a manner worthy of the call we have received. (ORDO 2024)

CLERGY CORNER

The following is from a sermon by Saint Augustine, bishop:

Today our Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; let our hearts ascend with him... Christ is now exalted above the heavens, but he still suffers on earth all the pain that we, the members of his body, have to bear... Why do we on earth not strive to find rest with him in heaven even now, through the faith, hope and love that unites us to him? While in heaven he is also with us; and we while on earth are with him. He is here with us by his divinity, his power and his love. We cannot be in heaven, as he is on earth, by divinity, but in him, we can be there by love. He did not leave heaven when he came down to us; nor did he withdraw from us when he went up again into heaven... Out of compassion for us he descended from heaven, and although he ascended alone, we also ascend, because we are in him by grace.

(Sermo de Ascensione Domini, Mai 98, 1-2: PLS 2, 494-495)

In the joy of Christ,
Fr. Robby
