FOURTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus is met with misgivings and rejection by his own relatives. Like them, we often resist the prophetic word because of an obstinacy of heart, rooted in self-pride, which must give way to weakness and powerlessness.

CLERGY CORNER

The following is from a letter to the Corinthians by Saint Clement I, pope and martyr:

Why are there strife and passion, schisms and even war among you? Do we not possess the same Spirit of grace which was given to us and the same calling in Christ? Why do we tear apart and divide the body of Christ? Why do we revolt against our own body? Why do we reach such a degree of insanity that we forget that we are members of one another?... Your division has led many astray, has made many doubt, has made many despair, and has brought grief upon us all. And still your rebellion continues. We should put an end to this division immediately. Let us fall down before our master and implore his mercy with our tears... There are many gates which stand open, but the gate of justice is the gateway of Christ. All who enter through this gate are blessed, pursuing their way in holiness and justice, performing all their tasks without discord. A person may be faithful; he may have the power to utter hidden mysteries; he may be discriminating in the evaluation of what is said and pure in his actions. But the greater he seems to be, the more humbly he ought to act, and the more zealous he should be for the common good rather than his own interest.

(Nn. 46, 2 – 47, 4; 48, 1-6: Funk 1, 119-123)

In the joy of Christ,
Fr. Robby

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

We have received generous donations of money and food items that allowed us to provide aid to many of our neighbors. In May, our Need Line received 61 calls seeking assistance and we were able to help a total of 14 individuals. Our volunteers made 8 home visits and assisted 5 individuals with gasoline cards. The Food Pantry served 1,083 individuals in 436 households. Starting in July, the Food Pantry will operate only on Thursdays from 10 am to 12 pm. It will be closed on July 4 in observance of Independence Day. Thank you for your continued support!
